THE GENERAL DATA PROTECTION REGULATION (GDPR) 2018

The EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) came into force on the 25th May 2018 and brought with it the most significant changes to data protection law in two decades. Based on privacy by design and taking a risk-based approach, the GDPR has been designed to meet the requirements of the digital age. The new Regulation aims to standardise data protection laws and processing across the EU; affording individuals stronger, more consistent rights to access and control to their personal information.

- Speedy Garage Doors Ltd is committed to ensuring the security and protection of the personal information that we process and hold on our customers, and to provide a compliant and consistent approach to data protection. We are dedicated to safeguarding the personal information under our remit and in developing a data protection regime that is effective, fit for purpose and demonstrates an understanding of, and appreciation for the new regulation.
- Speedy Garage Doors Ltd takes the privacy and security of individuals and their personal information very seriously and we take every reasonable measure and precaution to protect and secure the personal data that we process.

The information that we collect:

We collect your personal data when you book a free no-obligation quotation. This data is not passed on to any third party and is only used for the purposes of providing information as requested by the user. If you decide to go-ahead with us as your installer we may share your data with certain third parties; this is for the purposes of fulfilling the manufacturer's guarantee that we provide with our installations. Personal data includes your name, address, telephone number and email address. This data is used to provide essential documentation for your manufacturer's guarantee and will be retained on file for the lifetime of the guarantee only.

We do not share your data with any other third parties.
